

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

RULES OF ORDER,

As Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1875, and Adopted at Each Session Since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8½ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourning at its discretion.
2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned, and cause the same to be opened by reading the Scriptures, singing and prayer, and shall have the journals of the preceding day read and approved.
3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.
4. He shall appoint all committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.
5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.
6. When a motion, resolution or report presented, is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, at any time before action or amendment.
7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.
8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities, or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.
10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.
12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.
13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.
14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuse him.
15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defense.
19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.
[A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table. This has itself been the understanding in Detroit Conference.]—Secretary.

A. R. Bartlett submitted the following paper, signed by A. R. Bartlett, T. G. Potter, Jacob Horton, J. M. Fuller, and S. Reed.

Whereas, at a ministerial gathering lately held at Minneapolis, 26 ministers, claiming to represent the needs and wishes of North-Western Methodism, resolved to memorialize the next General Conference for the removal of the time limit as regards the appointments of the preachers of the M. E. Church; therefore

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Detroit Conference the present itinerant system of the Methodist Episcopal Church has secured such grand results in the past that changes should only be made upon the fullest demonstrations of need, and positive assurance of better results; and that a change so fraught with danger and promising so little good as that proposed can well afford to wait for years of calm deliberation by the whole church.

Resolved, That should the measure come before the General Conference, our delegates be and are hereby instructed to oppose, and vote against, the removal of the time limit.

A motion was made to amend by striking out so much as refers to the convention of Minneapolis. Pending its discussion A. J. Bigelow submitted this as a substitute for the whole paper:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the time limit in the Pastorate of the M. E. Church should not be removed.

It was laid on the table.

J. S. Smart submitted this as a substitute for the whole:

Resolved, That although we do not favor the removal of the time limit in the usual annual appointments by the Bishop, yet we would favor such a change as would meet emergencies and extend the term of service when it would be plainly for the glory of God and the good of the church to do so.

It was laid on the table.

A motion to lay the proposed amendment on the table prevailed.

A motion to lay the original document on the table was lost.

The question for the adoption of the paper was submitted, and carried, by a large majority.

The Secretary was instructed to insert in the Rules of Order, No. 20: "Two-thirds of the members present and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion."

The Rules of Order of the last session, thus amended, were adopted for the present session.

The bar of the Conference was fixed at a line running across the church from the farther part of the third window.

Leave of absence from the session of to-morrow was granted to G. W. Lowe and W. W. Ramsey.

It was ordered by vote, that the report of the Committee on the Burnt District be made the order of the day for to-morrow, at 10 o'clock; also, that the election of Delegates to the next General Conference be made the order of the day for Friday, at 10 o'clock.

The parchments of Edward Steer, withdrawn at the last session, were returned to the Conference.

A paper from the Board of Bishops, on "The Centenary of 1884," was read.

A memorial from the Northwestern Indiana Conference to the General Conference was submitted.

Both were referred to the Centenary Committee.

A communication from the Freedman's Aid Society was read, and, with accompanying paper, submitted to the committee on this interest.

Communications pertaining to Conference Claimants were referred to the appropriate committee.

A motion that pastors, in announcing the amount of their Missionary Collections, also announce the number of members on their charges, was laid on the table. Another motion, that they announce the apportionment made, was also tabled.

The Twentieth Question of the General Minutes, "Was the character of each Preacher examined?" was now taken up.

W. W. Washburn, Presiding Elder of Detroit District, submitted an encouraging view of the work of love on his district. His character was passed.

The following Preachers were called, and their characters passed; those present and on charges reporting their collections:

A. J. Bigelow, G. H. Hastings, D. J. Odell, L. C. York, F. W. Warren, H. A. Merrill, Wm. Dawe, C. T. Allen, T. H. Baskerville, John Alabaster, Wm. J. Clack, J. H. Caster, I. Johnston, F. E. John Alabaster was called, his character passed, and the Bishop announced his transfer to the Indiana Conference.

Notices of committee meetings given. T. C. Gardner was appointed to conduct religious services at the opening of to-morrow's session. J. M. Fuller invoked the Benediction, and Conference adjourned.

S. Reed, Secretary, submitted the following report of the Trustees of Detroit Conference:

Immediately after the election of the Trustees, in September, 1882, the Board met and organized by the election of A. F. Bourns, President; S. Reed, Secretary; and J. M. Arnold, Treasurer. A Finance Committee was appointed, of S. Clements, A. R. Bartlett, and I. N. Elwood, with Hon. T. C. Owen as advisor. The annual meeting of the Board was held in the city of Flint, September 12, 1883. The Treasurer,

J. M. Arnold, presented his annual report, which consisted in a schedule of the assets of the Ministers' Endowment Fund of the Detroit Annual Conference. The schedule shows amount of principal and interest to September 1, 1883, to be $15,970.46, and to exist as follows:

Mortgages and Real Estate, and Secured Notes	$14,760 44
Certificates of Deposit in D. Preston's Bank	1,012 10
Balance from Acc't current.	197 92
Total	$15,970 46

The bank certificates are drawing 4 per cent., and the notes and mortgages 7, 8, and in one case, 10 per cent. interest.

The Finance Committee, through their Chairman, S. Clements, reported that they had carefully examined each item of the securities, and believe them to be sound and ample.

The Board recommended that the sum of $900 from the Interest Account be turned over to the interest account of the Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society, to be disbursed by it according to its rules.

The time of Trustees A. F. Bourns; R. S. Pardington, and L. R. Fiske expires this year, and the Board respectfully nominated for election A. F. Bourns, L. R. Fiske, and C. T. Allen.

SETH REED,
Secretary.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Conference for the election of the Trustees nominated; it was done, and they were declared duly elected.

The annual report of the Book Committee, signed by its Chairman and Secretary, was read. J. M. Phillips addressed the Conference on the general interests of the Book Concern, and the report was referred to the Committee on Periodicals.

F. A. Blades, Chairman, reported that the committee appointed at the last Annual Conference on the subject of Haven Hall, at Ann Arbor, had been unable to decide upon any measures to report to this session. On motion, the Committee was continued. F. A. Blades, Arthur Edwards, W. W. Ramsey, M. W. Harrington, and C. B. Howell were constituted the same.

The special order of the day was taken up. Frances Berry, Secretary of the committee on "The Religious Interests of the Burnt District," read a detailed report of their work for the past year.

On motion to continue the committee for the ensuing year to complete their work, O. J. Perrin moved as a substitute that the work be referred to the Committee on Frontier

Work. The substitute was laid on the table, and the motion to re-appoint prevailed. The report was referred to the Editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, with request for its publication. The committee, by vote, was asked to prepare a succinct statement of the aid received from the Church Extension Board, and publish the same in the Christian Advocate, of New York; also, in the Northwestern Christian Advocate, of Chicago, Ill.

The names of pastors whose characters had passed at the session of yesterday, and who had not reported Missionary Collections, were called and their collections reported.

His Excellency, Governor Begole, of Michigan, briefly addressed the Conference, expressing his sympathy with the great work of temperance and religion in which its ministry are employed.

The Twentieth Question of the General Minutes was resumed.

John A. Combs was called.

This report of the Committee on Conference Relations was submitted and adopted:

Whereas, Rev. John A. Combs, formerly of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada, came to this Conference at its session in Port Huron in 1881, and presented in good faith what both he and we regarded sufficient testimonials of Christian character and ministerial standing in said church; and upon such testimonials, was duly received by this Conference as an Elder in good standing, we confidently expecting that upon his being received by us he ceased to be accountable to them;

But whereas, The Niagara Annual Conference of said Church claimed and asserted its jurisdiction in the case of said Combs by receiving charges of immorality against him at its session in April, 1882, and on said charges expelled him in April, 1883;

And whereas, This Conference does not desire to and will not contend with our brethren in Canada in a matter of jurisdiction, nor receive from them those whom they deem unworthy of a place among themselves; therefore,

Resolved, That the name of John A. Combs be entered as "withdrawn" on the minutes of this Conference.

This resolution, offered by J. M. Arnold, was adopted:

Whereas, Our Church at Port Huron, in the re-erection of their edifice, were compelled, after the most determined and persistent effort, to carry a debt of $8,000, which debt is becoming burdensome; and

Whereas, Our brethren there have a clear prospect of raising one-half the amount, on condition that the balance can be funded at a low rate of interest; therefore,

Resolved, That this Conference recommend and request the Church Extension Society, upon proper application, to assume this loan on condition that the Church at Port Huron first reduce the debt to a sum not exceeding $4,000.—(Signed) J. M. ARNOLD, R. B. POPE, T. G. POTTER.

The Second Question of the General Minutes, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up.

The following persons, after a full presentation of their examinations, and of their recommendation by Quarterly Conferences, were admitted on trial:

Henry Cartledge, William Peirce, James W. Kennedy, Morgan H. Davis, Benjamin F. Forsyth, Samuel Plantz, Guy M. Bigelow, Abner H. Lucas, Frank L. Osborne, James McAllister, Samuel A. Oliver, George S. Scarr, Franklin Weaver, William Edmunds, John L. Foxton, James Ivey.

William Peirce was excused from examinations on the course of study, on the grounds that he had graduated therein, and passed to Elder's Orders, in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada.

Morgan H. Davis was excused from examination in the course of study on the grounds that he had graduated therein in the Genesee Conference.

Franklin Weaver was admitted on testimonials showing that he was a probationer in the Niagara Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada, and excused on that ground for not having appeared before the Committee on Course of Study for admission on trial.

These resolutions, offered by Wm. Dawe, were adopted:

Whereas, By our present arrangement for the examination of Candidates for Admission on Trial, we have not sufficient time and quiet to do desirable and thorough work; and

Whereas, The hasty and indefinite method pursued, results in candidates presenting themselves with hope of admission, who have not read the books or prepared for the required examinations; and

Whereas, It is due to the Conference and the churches under its care, that only men of studious habits be accepted and admitted into membership; therefore,

Resolved, That all Candidates for Admission on Trial into this Conference shall present themselves for examination not later than 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning preceding the opening of Conference; and that no one shall be accepted as a candidate who reports that he has not pursued the course of study required by the Discipline.—WM. DAWE, I. N. ELWOOD, J. HORTON, J. S. SMART, M. HICKEY W. H. SHIER, J. E. JACKLIN, C. S. EASTMAN, A. J. BIGELOW,

Edwin Dawe was called.

The Committee on Conference Relations submitted the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Conference Relations would respectfully report, in the case of Edwin Dawe, that they have received from him a communication in which he asks that he be granted a certificate of location; but inasmuch as they are satisfied from correspondence in their hands, that some time ago he received and accepted a call to the pastorate of an Independent or Congregational Church in Milbournport, England, and since then has been acting in that capacity, they are of the opinion that he is, by his own act, withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and therefore recommend that his name be so entered upon the minutes of the Conference.—C. T. ALLEN.

Orrin Whitmore was examined, his character passed, and he was continued on the supernumerary list.

The report of the visitors to Albion College was read and adopted. (See report.)

He said it desired to secure full and accurate accounts of the ministry and churches, and, by resolution of the society, solicited more general attention to the subject, and to the preparation of a history of the churches within our bounds. The report was received.

J. M. Arnold, Financial Secretary, was instructed by vote to send, at his option, fifty cents or one dollar's worth of the minutes of the Conference to each of its members holding charges, who has not subscribed, and to collect the amount of the same.

The following, offered by W. George, was adopted by unanimous vote:

Whereas, Rev. John Alabaster, D. D., has labored successfully for four years within the bounds of the Detroit Conference at two of our most important charges, viz., Ann Arbor and Tabernacle Church, Detroit, and has also rendered most effective service as a public lecturer;

And whereas, He has now been transferred to Indiana Conference; therefore;

Resolved, That we hereby express our high appreciation of Bro. Alabaster's labors among us, and our best wishes and prayers for his successful future, and that should he ever wish to return to Detroit Conference to stay with us, we assure him of our hearty welcome.—W. GEORGE, W. W. WASHBURN, C. T. ALLEN, R. B. POPE, WM. J. CAMPBELL.

C. M. Anderson was announced to open the session of to-morrow morning, and Conference adjourned.

Reports from Committees on Education, on Periodicals, on the Centennial of the M. E. Church, on Bible Cause, on St. Ignace Church, were submitted, read, discussed, and reports adopted. (See Reports I to M.)

It was directed by vote that the $400 loan, referred to in the fifth section of the report on St. Ignace Church, be referred to O. Whitmore for collection and payment.

The following paper, offered by I. E. Springer, was adopted:

Whereas, There are no present disciplinary provisions for the licensing of women as Exhorters and Preachers, the Methodist Episcopal Church being thereby deprived of the privilege of legally employing them in those departments of gospel work implied in the pentecostal promise, and freely practiced by Mr. Wesley;

And whereas, Facts have demonstrated that God has been pleased to place the seal of His divine sanction on the ministration of women in the preaching of the Word and public evangelistic work by granting large results in the salvation of souls;

And whereas, It is desirable to have the formal economy of that Church which claims to be the child of Providence fully harmonize with the past indications of Providence and the custom of early Methodism;

And whereas, It is occasionally desirable to employ the services of women as evangelists in our home fields, and especially desirable to have the missionaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society legally licensed as Exhorters and Preachers to perform the gospel work of evangelism their respective fields demand; therefore,

Resolved, That the ensuing General Conference be and is hereby memorialized to make provisions for the licensing of women as Exhorters and Preachers, when, as in the case of men, by the tests of gifts, graces and usefulness, the Church is satisfied that God has called them thereunto.—ISAAC E. SPRINGER, W. E. BIGELOW, J. M. ARNOLD, A. J. BIGELOW, JOHN SWEET, W. GEORGE, JOHN WILSON, JOHN McELDOWNÉY.

The Conference Stewards reported. (See Questions Thirty and Thirty-one.)

The report of the Treasurer was accepted and adopted, with thanks.

MEMOIRS.

While our Father's loving eye has been upon us all during the past year, and His arm has been round about us, still it has pleased Him to call an unusually large number of our preachers and preachers' wives from their homes here to His own home above. We meet to-day to remember the virtues of the departed; to think of the blessed work in which they were engaged, and to pray that we may be as well prepared, as we believe they were, to receive the invitation: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

JOHN GRAY. On the 10th of December, 1832, near Dryden, Michigan, Rev. John Gray entered into his rest. Bro. Gray was born in Worcester, Mass., Dec'r 4th, 1808. He was converted at a camp meeting held near Lockport, N. Y., in June, 1829. He immediately joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and entered upon active Christian work, filling the office of class leader during the first four years of his membership. He was early licensed as a local preacher, and, coming to the West, gave himself to the travelling ministry. He was one of the pioneers of Methodism in this State, being admitted on trial in the Michigan Conference in September, 1839. His first appointment was to the Palmyra Circuit, Maumee District, which circuit then embraced a large tract of Southern Michigan and quite a strip of Northern Ohio. That year he organized the classes in Gorham, Ohio, and Blissfield, Mich. At the close of his first year he was ordained Deacon on his Local Preacher's certificate, by Bishop Hedding at the Marshall Conference. In 1840 he was appointed to Dundee; in 1841-2 to Dearbornville; in 1843-4 to Mt. Clemens; in 1845-6 to Clarkston; in 1847 to Lapeer; in 1848 to Almont. This year his arduous labors began to tell upon his strong constitution, and he was obliged to take a superannuated relation. After four or five years he measurably regained his health, and was again made effective. He was appointed to Oxford Circuit in 1853-4; to Washington Circuit in 1855; to Armada Circuit in 1856-7, and to Dryden in 1858. In 1859, having lost his hearing from the effects of sickness, he was compelled almost, though much to his regret, to accept a superannuated relation. He purchased a small farm near Dryden, on which he labored during the remaining years of his life and strength. But Bro. Gray did not cease his work for the Lord when he ceased to draw his salary as an effective minister. He loved to preach the gospel; with him it was almost a passion, and he preached long after he had ceased to hear a sound on earth, even the sound of his own voice. Bro. Gray was twice married: On May 1st, 1833, to Miss Luama Jones, with whom he spent several years of happiness. After her death, on May 25, 1851, he was married to Eliza C. VanAntwerp, who survives him, as do five of his children. Bro. Gray's education was such only as the district schools of the country afforded at the time of his youth; but it was well supplemented by strong common sense, by earnest application to his Conference studies, and by a faithful study of the Scriptures. He was a thoroughly earnest, spiritual preacher, and in prayer he was mighty. Though he had never seen a college diploma, yet he was very successful in saving souls and in building up the Church.

MRS. LOUISE YAGER. On the 11th of February, 1883, from the parsonage in Royal Oak, Mich., the soul of Mrs. Louise, wife of Rev. Eugene Yager, was called to her home above. Her maiden name was Wilson. She was born in Orleans county, N. Y., August 18, 1854. She was converted in Rochester, N. Y., about ten years ago, and at the same altar with Bro. Yager. They were married May 1, 1879, and although their married life was of short duration it was replete with happiness. As a pastor's wife she proved a valuable helper. Her trust in her Saviour was so strong that when she knew that she must soon part with her husband and those who were dear to her here, she said, "Thy will, O God, be done." As she bade her friends, one by one, good-bye, she said, "Don't weep; all is well; all is bright."

MRS. HARRIET BESSEY. On February 27, 1883, from Grand Rapids, Michigan, Mrs. Harriet, wife of Rev. Samuel Bessey, now a superannuated member of the Detroit Conference, entered into her rest and reward. She was born at Lysander, Onondaga county, N. Y., March 28, 1817. She came to Michigan in 1836; was married to S. Bessey, August 22, 1838. She was converted when a child, but made no public profession for some years. She at first joined the Christian Church, but after a few years changed her membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church. She met the responsibilities and bore the privations of an itinerant life in a new and sparsely settled country with patience; always making friends where she lived by her amiable christian qualities. During her short and painful sickness her mind was clear and her faith unflinching. A little while before her death she exclaimed "No name so sweet as Jesus." We believe she would repeat the same could she speak to us again. What a blessing must be the memory of such a wife to the now lonely, superannuated Bro. Bessey.

BENJAMIN F. COCKER. From his home in Ann Arbor, on the 8th of April, 1883, the great soul of Benjamin F. Cocker, D. D., LL. D., entered into glory. He was born in Yorkshire, England, of Wesleyan parents, in 1821. He was converted in early life, and was a local preacher in the Wesleyan Church at the age of 18 years. He was educated at King James' Grammar School for one of the learned professions, but spent a considerable portion of his life in active business. In 1850, his health failing, he sought a change of climate by going to Australia. He spent several years in business, with varied fortunes, in Australia and the islands of the Southern Ocean. In the winter of 1856-7 he came to the United States, landing in Adrian, Mich. It was there and then, at the age of 36, that he determined to abandon forever his business pursuits, and to give himself to the gospel ministry, a course to which his convictions had long pointed. To the Detroit Conference, at its session in 1857, he offered himself, and was received on trial, and two years after was received to membership. His first appointment was to the country neighborhood of Palmyra, where he had preached as a supply under the Elder for a few months previous to the session of the Conference. It was here in the little low-roofed chamber of the parsonage, as he afterwards said, that he did the hardest, and to him the most profitable, work of his life. In 1858 he was appointed to Adrian station; in 1860 to Ypsilanti; in 1862 to Ann Arbor; in 1865, the term of ministerial labor in one charge having then been lengthened, he was again appointed to Adrian; and in 1868 again to Ann Arbor. In 1869 he was appointed to the Central Church, in Detroit. He did not, however, enter upon the pastorate of that church. The Regents of the University of Michigan had discovered the distinguishing merit and brilliant powers of the man, and, about the same time that he received his appointment to the Central Church, he was unanimously elected to the Chair of Mental and Moral Philosophy in the University. On receiving information of his election, he said to the writer of this sketch, "I would rather occupy that Chair than be the President of the United States; by the grace of God I will teach philosophy in that institution as it has never been taught," and by the grace of God he did. It was then that the rich endowments of his nature found ample scope for their development. As teacher, preacher and author, and more as a noble Christian man, he impressed himself upon the gathered intellect of the University as no other man had ever done. During the thirteen years and more that he held the position, his power as a Christian thinker and teacher seemed to unfold in wonderful proportions, so that the majesty of his manhood and the brilliancy of his intellect attracted the attention of the great thinkers and teachers in both hemispheres of our world. Dr. Cocker was physically a feeble man, and during all his years of intense mental activity and public labors he carried on an almost ceaseless struggle with disease. Many times his friends thought he must go down, yet in cheerfulness and triumph he wrought on, until, in December last, he was seized with acute pneumonia. For weeks he lay prostrate under the attack; sometimes rallying a little, and, by the cheerfulness of his spirit, giving hopes of his recovery to the thousands of anxious friends who watched for the daily reports from the sick room. But the contest was unequal, and the all-wise Father had willed to take him to Himself. On the 8th of April his strength finally gave way, and he was rescued from longer struggle. The closing scenes of his life were such as to inspire with sublime trust and comfort all his friends. His views of the spiritual world seemed unclouded, and the conscious presence of the Divine One, in whom he trusted, made him joyously triumphant. Said he: "This chamber has been to me the dearest place I have ever seen; it is the very gate of Heaven, because of the precious communings my Saviour has granted to me here." To his bereaved companion, who had been one with him for forty years, and to his two sons, also to all his friends in all parts of the world, such dying testimony is of inestimable value. How we shall miss the great man in our assemblies. How he will be missed by thousands on earth. But how he was welcomed by the great spirits in glory. May we all meet him there.

MRS. ELLEN WARREN. In Utica, Michigan, on Sabbath, April 15, 1883, Mrs. Ellen, wife of Rev. Squire E. Warren, of the Detroit Conference, in the 51st year of her age, bade farewell to earthly friends and joined the ranks above. Her native place was Coddington, Genesee county, N. Y. She came with her father's family to Macomb, Michigan, while yet a youth. She was converted to God at 15 years of age, under the labors of Rev. David Thomas, and entered immediately upon active Christian work, which she continued with great usefulness to the day of her death. In her 18th year she was married to Bro. S. E. Warren. No wedded pair shared more completely each other's care and affection than did they during the thirty-three years of their earthly union: and the three children God gave them grew to manhood and womanhood in one of the most affectionate homes of earth. After ten years of their married life had been spent in their pleasant home in Macomb, her husband, yielding to strong convictions of duty in which she fully shared, entered the itinerant ministry. In exchanging the comforts of home for the embarrassments of their new life, her mind and heart seemed to gather increased strength and ambition for the greater usefulness afforded by the broader fields of labor. On every charge where they lived, her social and christian influence was a decided and acknowledged factor in her husband's successful ministry. Long will her name be cherished in the memories of those among whom she lived and labored, and many there are to whom her life was a blessing. Her death came without warning, but she was ready. On the Thursday before she died she received an injury by the overturning of a carriage. She suffered much pain until Sunday morning, when, instead of going to the house of the Lord as had been her delight during her whole religious life, her soul entered the grand assembly of the saints, made perfect by the blood of the Lamb.

MRS. SARAH RIDDICK. In Detroit, on the 17th of July, 1883, Mrs. Sarah, wife of Rev. J. H. Riddick, of the Detroit Conference, closed her earthly duties and entered her home above. Sarah Thompson was born in 1846, in Norwich, N. Y. In the morning of her life, under the christian influences of her early home, she gave her heart to Jesus and her name to the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which she lived a happy and useful christian till the day of her departure. On the 25th of May, 1878, she was united in marriage to Bro. Riddick, and the seven short years of their united life were marked by strong affection for each other, by mutual zeal for the glory of Christ, and earnest labor for the salvation of souls. She was his true helper in the work of his ministry till compelled by disease to retire from her social activities and to await the coming of the messenger, which she did with trust and with triumph. She leaves numerous friends in Alpena, the place of her husband's present pastorate, as she does in every place where she has lived.

ELIAS B. PRINDLE. On the 23d of July, 1883, at his home in Sanborn, Dakota, in the 63d year of his age, Rev. Elias B. Prindle, of the Detroit Conference, was smitten by a stroke of lightning, and instantly ushered into the scenes of eternity. Bro. Prindle was born in the State of New York in 1820. At an early day he came to Michigan, and in the fall of 1853 he offered himself to the Michigan Conference, and was received on trial; and into full membership by the Detroit Conference at its first session, in Adrian, in 1856. His appointments were counted: In 1858 to Pinckney, in 1854 to Williamsville, in 1855 to Antrim, in 1856-7 to Cheesaning, in 1858-9 to Byrne, in 1860 to Ingham, in 1861 to Bennington, in 1862 to Hartland, in 1863 to Forest, in 1864 to Holly. In 1865 he retired on the superannuated list, and settled at Flint, where he remained about two years, when he removed to Ann Arbor and engaged in business. In 1877 he was again made effective, and appointed to Unadilla circuit, but, his health proving inadequate, he again retired from the work and moved to Paola, Kansas, and afterwards to Sanborn, Dakota, where he bought some land and engaged in farming. Bro. Prindle was a pure-minded man, and a faithful, useful minister. Unassuming in his manners, he won upon the hearts of the people by his earnest piety, his humility, and devotion to his work. Both in the effective ranks and as a superannuate, he worked up to the measure of his ability. Of his early religious experience we have no information; but there is no doubt of his readiness for the sudden call of the Master, and that the smiting of His thunderbolt was but the painless smiting of his soul into glory. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married about a year, his first wife having died several years ago. Ida, his only child, also survives him.

MRS. ANN WORTLEY. By a strange and fatal collision on the Rouse, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railway, near Carlyon, N. Y., at half-past nine o'clock in the dark evening of July 27th, 1883, the spirit of Mrs. Ann, wife of Rev. Jacob C. Wortley, of the Detroit Conference, was instantly ushered into the spirit world. She had, the day before, left her own happy home in the village of Saline, Mich., the place of her husband's pastorate, for a short trip to the White Mountains, to gaze upon their scenery and to breathe the mountain air. In an instant the crash came, and Sister Wortley was carried to other mountains, and opened her eyes on other scenes, over which no dark cloud shall ever cast its dismal shade. It was not until the next Monday morning that the terrible news reached the husband and his children that he was for the second time a widower. On that day her mortal remains were brought home, and were carried to Unadilla, the place of her former home, and were laid to rest beside those of her parents and other relatives who had gone before. Mrs. Wortley's maiden name was Bird. She was born in Ann Arbor, Nov. 18th, 1839. She was converted and received to the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 11 years, and she witnessed a good confession to the day of her death. She was married to Bro. Wortley, May 7th, 1878, and as a wife, a step-mother to his children, and a christian in the community, her influence was a perpetual benediction.

EPHRAIM VANORMAN. On the 28th of August, 1883, at Neosho Falls, Kansas, Rev. Ephraim Vanorman, of the Detroit Conference, was released from protracted bodily suffering and taken to his eternal rest. He was born near Hamilton, Canada, Aug.

1st, 1814. His education was gained principally in the common schools of the country, but he early formed habits of study which he followed through life. From early life he was the subject of deep religious convictions, and at the age of 17 was converted to God. He immediately began to warn men to flee from the wrath to come and to lay hold on eternal life. It was apparent to the church that he was called of God to the work of the ministry, and his youth and early manhood was spent in missionary work in Canada. He came to Michigan, and in 1807 offered himself, and was received to membership in the Detroit Conference. Bro. Vanorman was three times married: in 1837, to Phebe McClair; in 1845, to Margaret Sanderson; in 1863, to Frances Beadle, who survives him. As a minister he was faithful; as a Christian he was deeply devoted to God. His bodily suffering for over a year before his death was severe, but he was sustained by God's grace which enabled him to praise and shout his way through. He died well.

To all the bereaved friends of all the nine families represented in the sad services of this day, we, the members of the Detroit Conference, extend our heartfelt sympathy, and to God our Father shall our prayers ascend for his sustaining grace.—S. REED, Ch'n.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

With the origin, object and history of the Freedmen's Aid Society we are all familiar. Its practical workings may be learned from our Church Manual. Relating, as it does to the education, elevation and salvation of the millions of Freedmen in our land, its importance cannot easily be over stated. The noble band of heroic teachers from the North have done, and are still doing a great work. The schools of various grades and characters established by the Society are a great blessing to the country. The army of teachers and preachers, educated to a greater or less extent in these schools, are scattering blessings to many benighted hearts and communities. But how inadequate the agencies now in the field to the work of giving a Christian education to the vast multitudes who might be gathered into our schools if located within their reach. If educated and saved at all it must be largely through the agency of their own people. Multitudes should be educated for teachers and sent all over the land. Intelligent colored preachers are much needed; many now in the field are totally unqualified for their holy calling, and unless their places can be occupied by persons of more intelligence our cause and the cause of Christ must suffer great loss. They need also educated persons for the professions, and positions of responsibility open to them, and the masses cannot be elevated to any considerable extent without education. Nothing short of a genuine Christian education will meet their necessities, and God will hold us responsible for doing our share towards giving them such an education.

Resolved, therefore:

1. That we heartily approve the action of the Society in asking for $125,000 for the cause the coming year, instead of $100,000 as in former years.
2. That we respectfully ask the Board of Presiding Elders to apportion the $2,500 asked of this Conference among the several districts, and that the several Presiding Elders apportion the amounts asked of their respective districts among their charges.
3. That we will present the subject to our people during the coming year, and put forth an earnest effort to raise our several apportionments.
4. That we approve the suggestion of our Bishops that the Freedmen's Aid Society be made one of the beneficiaries of the proposed centennial offerings, and we respectfully request the General Conference to include this among the objects for which money shall be asked.—W. E. BIGELOW, Ch'n.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The "Church Extension" Society is pushing on in its work, and, we believe, rapidly growing in favor with the people. Certainly, its achievements challenge the admiration of all thoughtful men, and the years as they come and go, only add to its efficiency and its glory.

We, of the Detroit Conference, are deeply indebted to the Society for its timely and generous aid in erecting churches for those of our people who were unable to build without assistance. Therefore be it Resolved, That we recognize and will bring before our people the claims which this society has for a generous support.—C. T. ALLEN.

PARSONAGES.

Your committee are gratified to learn that a good degree of attention has been given during the last year to the providing of homes for our preachers in charges that have hitherto been without. There are yet, however, a number of charges where no such homes are provided. While most of our Parsonages and grounds are cared for and kept with a taste becoming the position of its occupants, some are allowed to become too untidy and dilapidated in their appearance. There is indebtedness also on some of our Parsonages.

As the coming year is to be observed as a centennial by our Church, and as the Bishops have recommended, among other things to be attempted during that year, the payment of debts on parsonages; therefore:

Resolved, That Pastors on charges that are without good, suitable Parsonages be urged to do all possible to secure and pay for convenient houses for such purposes during the next year; also, that all reasonable effort be made to remove encumbrance from such as are now in debt.—J. B. GOSS, Ch'n.

[E.]

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Every year's experience strengthens the hold of the Sunday School upon the mind and heart of the Church. While its prosperity the past year may not have been uniform, it has, as a whole, maintained a healthy and substantial growth. Its right to life and progress is unquestioned. The increase of absorbing worldly interests and the numerous moral problems ever arising for solution, demand its continuance as an essential moral and religious agency. It is in the Church and of the Church and inseparable from the Church. It is God's Bible School for all classes and all ages. Its primary and ultimate aim is the salvation of souls. Its peculiar weapon is the Word of God. Its reliance is the Holy Spirit. The Sunday School develops the moral and spiritual capabilities of the Church, both by serving and by being served. The conditions of its success are identical with those upon which the prosperity of the Church depends, viz: Full consecration to God and the good sense and patience and perseverance and wisdom and invention and zeal of Christ's love enthroned in the heart. From the right spirit will come right methods and lesson helps. We regard the use of our own denominational tools in this workshop of the Church as both consistent and expedient. The Berean Leaf, the Teachers' Journal and the Picture Lesson Paper need no commendation. If our publishers would issue an edition of our Hymnal accommodated to the Sunday School in form and price we believe it would displace much of the light and inferior sort now in use. An acquaintance with our Hymns would not only be spiritually wholesome for the schools but would also build up the public and social meetings of the Church. The responsibility of the Church in the direction of Sunday School work is increasing. The advancing secular educational agencies afford the wicked, means to cast in the way of the young more and subtler forms of vice against which they must be fore-armed. Infidelity, intemperance, popular amusements and a false and foul literature are actively inventing new means of deceiving our young people. It devolves upon each Church to meet and vanquish these foes by means of thorough instruction in the Truth, by means of temperance and religious papers and tracts; by means of a library carefully selected and as large as can be afforded, and by means of genuine Christian songs.—R. WOODHAMS, Ch'n.

TEMPERANCE.

The traffic in intoxicating drinks is as widespread and defiant to-day as ever, and will yield neither to wholesome argument nor the restraint of civil law. It demands universal liberty to work out its deeds of ruin and death. It demands the privilege of entering our homes to make drunkards of our sons, and cast blight and ruin upon the hopes of our daughters. It demands the right to enter every grade of our social life, corrupt the morals of the people and sap the foundations of our social institutions. It would abolish the sacredness of the Sabbath, and make the day one of pleasure and beer drinking. It would drive the Bible from the common schools, and make childhood itself the victim of debauchery and strong drink. The traffic knows no law of human kindness or sympathy, and remains unmoved by the tears of broken-hearted wives and the shame and degradation that it casts upon helpless and innocent children. It does not blush at the crimes it originates, at the sufferings it produces, nor at the hopes it destroys. What then shall we do with this deadly traffic? Shall we appeal to the facts? The rumrunner cares neither for your facts nor their results. Will you appeal to argument and sound principles? The rumrunner will smile at your credulity to think he is to be turned aside from his nefarious business by either logic or principle. Will you appeal to the political parties for redress? You will find that the liquor men have been there before you, and that the two leading political parties are so under the control of the liquor interests that they crouch and whimper before it like whipped urchins, and that they dare not lift a finger only at the beck of whiskey. What then shall we do? We answer: Let every temperance man rally to the principle of positive prohibition as the only sure method of settling this important question. Let no temperance man ever deceive himself by supposing that tax or license, be it high or low, will ever suppress this gigantic evil. Prohibition, constitutional and legislative, should be the goal towards which all our efforts tend, and the sooner we come to understand this, the sooner will our hopes be realized and intemperance be banished from our land.

In view of the importance of this subject we would offer the following resolutions.

First, That we will use every lawful means to create a healthy, public sentiment upon the subject of intemperance.

Second, That we will not support by our influence or ballots, any political party that refuses to submit to the people the question of constitutional prohibition and that does not strive by all legitimate means to suppress the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

Third, That we sympathize with Iowa in her endeavors to incorporate the principle of prohibition into her State Constitution, and will ever pray for her success.

We would also recommend Rev. H. Hodgkins, a member of this Conference, as an able lecturer upon the subject of temperance, and assure any Brother who may wish to secure his services that he will give good satisfaction.—A. J. BIGELOW, Ch'n.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Since every command that God has ever given to man is in complete harmony with man's physical, intellectual, and moral nature, and conformity to the same is the highest form of freedom, prosperity, and happiness of which any finite being is capable; therefore:

Resolved, 1. That we shall make the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath among the most prominent themes of our pulpit ministrations, as well as to illustrate our teachings wherever we go.

Resolved, 2. That we shall only recognize as intelligent symmetrical Bible Christians, such as incorporate in their lives a sacred observance of the spirit of the Christian Sabbath.—J. H. MCINTOSH, Ch'n.

FRONTIER WORK.

To the Bishop and Members of the Detroit Annual Conference:

Your Committee on "Frontier Work" respectfully submit the following:

When at our Session in 1878, this Conference adopted special measures for the planting of our Church in Northern Michigan, we anticipated only a temporary departure from our regular system of operations. The expediency and wisdom of the plan then inaugurated has been fully demonstrated in the marked success which has crowned our labors, not only within the territory then appealing for aid, but more signally in the more imperative necessities of that section, which was rendered dependent and helpless by the disastrous fire of 1881. Our achievements upon the frontier during the last four years will ever constitute one of the grandest chapters in the history of Michigan Methodism. Our Church has shown its readiness to respond to the appeal of our needy frontier population; and the self-sacrificing labors of our ministry in "the regions beyond" prove that the heroic age of Methodism has not passed. Already not less than thirty-five church edifices stand as a memorial of the energy of our advance, the liberality of our people and the generous aid of the Church Extension Society. Yet these are a partial index only, of the real work which has been accomplished in penetrating the wilderness, rallying our scattered membership, organizing societies and charges, and establishing upon an enduring foundation the spiritual forces of the Church.

In view of past appeals and the imminent claims that will press upon the benevolence of our people during the centennial year, we would now gladly resign our frontier to the regular agencies of the Church, did not the imperative necessities of the territory which the General Conference under the Great Head of the Church has assigned to the Detroit Conference for its efficient occupancy, demand special provision. Your Committee are confident that no interest more sacred or prospectively more remunerative than the prosecution of our frontier work can be commended to the liberality of our people during the coming year. The emergency that called into existence our special frontier agencies not only exists in all its magnitude, but that frontier has been greatly extended by commercial agencies, which have more than trebled the population entirely destitute of any religious oversight. We have, indeed, planted Churches along the shore, in the burnt district, and in the more important railroad towns, but we have been able to do comparatively nothing for the rural communities in the interior. Not only in the lower peninsula to which our appropriations have been chiefly directed, but in the large agricultural district embraced between St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, and Menominee River, settlers are pouring in at a rate which defies our effectual care. A large proportion of these are of American birth, notably from Canada, and many are of Methodist faith or proclivities. It is needless to argue the advantages which we secure, both in the pecuniary aid of leading men, the loyalty of our former members, and enduring prestige in the community, by being first in the field. We have acquired the undisputed honor of being a pioneer Church, and we have the men, the means, and we trust the Godly zeal to "see that no man take our crown." But this is the auspicious hour in which to assert our interest in this destitute population by giving them an Armenian Gospel, our peculiar means of grace, and economy. A dollar extended through our itinerant agencies upon the frontier accomplish more than if distributed through other systems. But still we need the means, and must have it from abroad, in order to do aggressive work. We ought this year to expend $10,000 in the support of pioneer preachers, which under our system would secure the support of fifty men on the frontier. If it were not hazardous we should recommend that a vigorous man be employed for the whole year supervising this special work, as prevails in other denominations. But the sum we may be able to realize from special contributions will be required to give the men who are soon to be sent into this territory a bare subsistence. We do therefore recommend:

1. That we undertake to raise during the coming year the sum of $4,000, to be expended in the support of our ministers upon the frontier.

2. That a Committee of twelve, to consist of five laymen and of seven ministers, be constituted as a "Board of Control," who shall apportion this amount among the districts, and to the several charges, and who shall supervise its disbursement.

3. That the Conference request every Pastor to take this collection prior to January 1st, 1884, and that he use all practicable effort by such other means as he shall deem expedient to raise his full quota.

4. That in view of the fact that Rev. A. J. Richards, in the prosecution of his work upon Alpena District has been compelled to assume moral and financial obligations which are still valid, and which can only be discharged in the completion of the Churches now in course of erection, that he be employed as agent of our frontier work, to receive until January 1st, 1884, a salary of $350, and traveling expenses not to exceed $100, and that the Bishop be requested to make this appointment.

5. Your Committee further recommend that the Board of Control be constituted as follows: Laymen—Hon. T. C. Owen, David Preston, Geo. O. Robinson and C. B. Howell, of Detroit; and George Robinson, of Mt. Clemens. Ministers—R. B. Pope, Wm. H. Shier, J. M. Gordon, O. J. Perrin, A. R. Bartlett, W. M. Campbell and J. M. Arnold; and that David Preston be Treasurer and C. B. Howell Secretary.

6. In conclusion we submit the following:

Resolved, That we desire to express our hearty appreciation of the services of Rev. A. J. Richards, our grateful and deep sense of the liberality of the Church Extension Society, and our thanks for the increased appropriations of the Missionary Society, which have especially aided in the prosecution of our frontier work. J. M. ARNOLD, Ch'n.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee, appointed to consider the subject of Education, respectfully beg leave to report.

In recognition of the fact that religion in its most permanent and valuable types can only be promoted in connection with general intelligence, the Church continues to manifest a lively interest in Education, not only as conducted by the Church itself, but as carried forward in the public schools and higher institutions under the patronage of the State. And we consider it advisable to place on record here our high appreciation of the public educational system which has contributed so greatly to the progress and glory of our State, and our unflinching friendliness towards all public schools, whether of primary or higher grades. And your Committee would here advise that we pledge ourselves anew to an intelligent and prudent watchfulness in the communities in which we labor, that the schools be kept as free as possible from the so-called liberal tendencies which characterize our times. Surely as molders of public opinion we can do much if we make an effort, to prevent each and all of our public educational institutions from falling into the hands of men who have no sympathy with Christ and His cause.

But while we have responsibilities in common with others, for the right conduct of the public institutions of learning, we feel that to us has been committed a special trust in the schools and colleges which the Church has originated and which she is seeking to maintain. To us it is not an open question as to whether it is the duty of the Church to foster institutions for higher education which are under her exclusive control. Sooner should we expect the State to remand higher education into the hands of the Church, than that the Church should resign the work upon which she has been impelled by the most profound convictions of duty to enter. The fact is among us everywhere conceded that for the stability and growth of the Church, schools and colleges in her ownership and control are a necessity. And it is our unchanged purpose to stand by the institutions we have, and establish others as they may be needed.

Your Committee are highly gratified with the condition of the Garrett Biblical Institute as represented in the documents handed us by the honored President of the Institute, and the report of our Conference Visiting Committee, which we place herewith into the hands of the Conference with the suggestion that it be read. This Institute is properly ours. We are in its patronizing territory. A member of our body is at the head of its faculty. We should hold ourselves to the fact that our relations to it are closer and more responsible than to any other Theological Seminary in the Church. It is doubtless, with its able faculty and ample facilities, as well qualified as any school in the land to finish the preparation of young men for the ministry. If we could send our young men, anticipating the work of the ministry, to the Institute, and then, after they have received the furnishing there to be secured, the faculty would send them back to us, it would be a happy thing for the Church. It must be seen at once that a ministry reared upon our soil and thoroughly educated in our own institutions, is in the main best adapted for usefulness. That we should have in our own number a sprinkling of able brethren who have not been reared among us is perhaps well enough, but that we should ever come to the time when we must depend entirely upon importations is to be deprecated. We look to our colleges and training schools for ministers to save us from this. In turn they look to us to furnish them the men to train and the means to do the work.

During the past year Albion College has manifested more signs of life, and has made more rapid progress than in many years past. Its condition has been quite fully set forth in the hearing of the Conference by the report of the President of the Board of Trustees. From every quarter there also come reports of the growing enthusiasm of its alumni and other friends in its behalf. Many words of high appreciation are spoken of its President, an honored member of this body, and of his able assistants in the faculty. The trustees and faculty are planning large things for the College. Your Committee would however confess to a fear, as they have read the glowing accounts of enlarged plans and increased courses of study, that in their enthusiasm the Trustees would be led to undertake more than the already overworked faculty can carry forward successfully, or the limited finances sustain. But we believe the Church will stand by the authorities of the College in this advance movement, and during the approaching Centenary year see that enough increase of endowment is provided to carry out the enlarged plans, and much more. An ample endowment is needed at once to advance the College to the position it should occupy. Whatever form this movement may take, we, as a Conference, pledge ourselves to do our utmost by our prayers and efforts to secure its success.

The terms of office of Rev. J. S. Smart, D. D., and Horace Hitchcock, Esq., Trustees, being about to expire, we recommend their re-election.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. W. Washburn, D. D., Rev. R. Woodhams and Rev. I. E. Springer as visitors to Albion College. We also recommend the appointment of Rev. W. W. Ramsey, D. D., and Rev. Jacob Horton as visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute.

There have also been submitted for the consideration of your Committee, reports and other papers from the Board of Education of our Church. The reports indicate that great advance has been made, especially in the observance of Children's Day, and in the collections made on that day. We believe that general observance of this special day is to be encouraged, and that the contributions then laid upon God's altar will do much for the furtherance of His work. The Board of Bishops have advised that special contributions be made during the Centenary year. We therefore advise that special prominence be given to Children's Day in 1884, and that liberal collections be made in all our Sunday Schools.

Your Committee would call attention to the fact that the children's pennies and dimes contributed are funded, and the interest only used for purposes of the society. We believe that if the fact were generally known that the Children's Day collections are so funded, it would diminish them very much in the future. There is such pressing need of means to educate young men for the ministry and sustain public colleges throughout the land, that it seems inexpedient to hold back the funds collected from present use for the sake of building up an endowment. If we take good care of the present generation the coming one will be well able to take care of itself. We would recommend that this Conference request the Delegates to the General Conference to secure, if possible, such a change in the administration of the Board, or in its law if necessary, as will insure the expenditure of the Children's Day collections year by year as the Board may direct.—Respectfully submitted, I. N. ELWOOD, Ch'n.

PERIODICALS.

We find our Church Periodicals deservedly growing in favor with both the laity and ministry of not only the Methodist Episcopal Church but also with the reading, thinking, religious public.

The influence of our connectional press is second to no power in the Church in forming public opinion, in raising the morals of the masses, and in presenting the doctrines of Christianity to the understanding both of the scientist and the Sunday School scholar.

The Quarterly Review stands at the head of our periodicals and needs no words of commendation. Its long standing reputation is undimmed and passing years still add to its luster. We feel like urging our brethren to greater familiarity with its pages. And if our leading laymen would carefully study the numbers of this Review as they come from the press, and discuss its teachings with their several Pastors, it would not only strengthen the intellectual and spiritual power of the laity but tend to cure many a clerical brain of mental indolence. In fact the Church is in greater need of the Review than the Review is in want of patronage or commendation.

The Northwestern Christian Advocate and the New York Christian Advocate are the only connectional papers of wide circulation in this Conference. These are each so ably edited that we have reason to feel not only secure but proud in recommending them as capable exponents of our Church and her doctrines. It would be to the furthering of Christianity as advanced by Michigan Methodism, if one or both of these papers could find its way into every Methodist family in the bounds of the Conference. We earnestly urge upon our brethren of the ministry the imperative necessity of increasing this circulation.

With regard to the Michigan Christian Advocate and the Lamp of Life, while we would earnestly deprecate and protest against their being taken as substitutes for our official Church literature; yet as additional thereto, we desire to express our high appreciation of their excellence and to recommend their circulation. We would farther recommend to our people the Michigan Christian Advocate, believing, though it has already reached a circulation of nearly 7,000, it should be more generally circulated among our people.

Your Committee are most happy to report the increasing worth of our Sunday School literature, and would recommend each minister to note the facts and figures pertaining to this department of Church Periodicals.

We are gratified to find our publishers furnishing more Sunday School literature than supplies the demands of our Church, thus showing that other denominations recognize the value of these well prepared and able adjuncts for efficient Sunday School work.

In closing we beg to remark Michigan has its geographical strength and weakness. We are proud of our beautiful peninsula, but the waters divide us from the surrounding Northwest; therefore, we are in danger of losing not only the knowledge of the religious activity of our denomination in our sister States, but also the stimulus that would come to us in our Church work if we felt more keenly the heart beat of Methodism in this great empire.

Our own Edwards, with so large sympathy for Michigan and located in the metropolis of this vast region, can and does help us through the Northwestern Christian Advocate. We have never, as a Conference, fully appreciated this. The M. E. Church is a great system, and in its outreachings its influence is more than local, is widely national. We therefore feel that the best interest of our Conference demands a positive and watchful care on the part of our clergy and laity for the building up of our great Church organs, not that we would make the local less, but bring the circulation of our official organs nearer the ideal so long cherished by the Church. D. R. SHIER, Ch'n.

CENTENNIAL OF M. E. CHURCH.

Your Committee appointed to consider the proper celebration of the Centenary of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1884, respectfully report as follows:

In 1866 our Church duly observed the Centennial of the introduction of Methodism into this Western Continent. The Church would not have been worthy its name and genius had not its instincts pointed to a thorough organization—that is to say, Methodization—which characteristic instinct took shape at the celebrated Christmas Conference in 1844, whose deliberations extended over into the year 1885. At that time the body selected and ordained Bishop Asbury, and set the machinery of the Church in motion.

Wonder and gratitude arise dutifully when we realize something of that which God hath wrought during the century just closing. Our first hundred years have been given to expansion and evangelization. We thank God for the heroic laborers who have wrought under God, and we humbly rejoice in the fruits which He hath vouchsafed.

In plans for the coming celebration of the century of organized Methodism we have had wise respect to the suggestions made to the Church by our General Superintendents at their meeting in November last. In harmony with their conclusions, and with action already taken by several annual conferences, we suggest:

1. That this Conference recommend to our societies in Detroit Conference that, as preparatory to the outpouring of thank offerings in 1884, they address themselves as earnestly and early and resolutely as possible to the payment of all debts remaining upon Church and Parsonage property. The aggregate of this, as reported at our last session is about $59,000. In all cases where the debts upon individual societies remain unfunded, we hope a strong effort will be made to pay the last dollar. There will be inspiration, power and immense credit in store for our Church when we can present the quite easily realizable spectacle of a denomination entirely free from financial obligation, and we literally obey the command to "owe no man anything."

2. As a Church we should do as God's Church has done from the beginning—bring our offerings to the altar, and build a memorial unto the Lord forever. We, therefore, suggest that having thus paid our honest debts, we shall begin the alphabet of Benevolence by rallying to the generous support of our Church Educational Work in Michigan. We recommend that our Church Schools shall be our chief interest, and that we concretize this spiritual duty by rallying to the thorough endowment of our College at Albion. Our membership should see that this is their golden moment of opportunity. Added years may bring multiplying Conferences with their possible conflicting and interfering interests, and even competing newschools. We are rich enough to place a million dollars in treasury as an endowment of our present one and unrivaled School.

3. We therefore suggest that steps be taken to form a Michigan Centennial Methodist Association whose scope and plans shall embrace measures to organize during the coming year, and to labor for many years to come, until the million dollars are actually realized. We therefore recommend that Bishop Harris be requested to appoint seven ministers and seven laymen in this Conference who shall co-operate with a like Committee already appointed in Michigan Conference, and both, with the trustees of Albion College, to carry out these suggestions.

4. These new agencies, new plans and new resources imply corresponding advance in the School itself. We believe Michigan Methodism should have, must have and presently will possess a University worthy of the name. We, therefore, suggest that this joint committee from the two Conferences shall have power, and should hereby be authorized to determine the scope and character of our coming University work, and give the proper name to the School which we know will arise presently on the foundations now at Albion.

5. We heartily endorse our Bishop's suggestions that the centennial season be further utilized by soliciting gifts from our people to create Local Permanent Funds to relieve necessitous cases.

The number of our Conference claimants is annually increasing and the present supplies are too small to give them a comfortable support. Our people will during the Centenary year be asked to make charitable contributions for the better support of the necessitous and dependent claimants, therefore: We order that all funds raised during the Centenary year for those who are extremely and specially needy, shall be put in the hands of the Detroit Conference Trustees for distribution according to the pleasure of the Conference.

Finally, respecting the memorial from the Northwest Indiana Conference which suggests the creation of a new, special connectional fund for superannuated ministers and their heirs, we recommend that this Conference do not concur. In behalf of the Committee, ARTHUR EDWARDS, Ch'n.

THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Chillingworth's famous maxim, "The Bible alone the religion of Protestants," has ever been one of the watchwords of Methodism. During all our varied history, and with all the sections in which our Church has been divided, we rejoice that every branch of the great Methodist body has been true to the cardinal principle of Protestantism, that the Bible contains all things which are of necessity to be believed for man's salvation, and we are glad of every opportunity to reaffirm our unshaken faith that the Scriptures are a divinely inspired record of the revelation which Almighty God has made to the world by His Son, Christ Jesus.

We rejoice in all the fresh light which archaeological research and modern scholarship can throw upon these sacred Scriptures, and we consider the revised version of the New Testament to be a valuable boon to the Christian world, though we are not prepared to look on it as final, or to recommend its general adoption in our Churches. To supply the people with the pure undiluted word of God is surely one of the noblest works that can occupy the attention of all earnest Christians; it is therefore Resolved, 1. That will use our utmost endeavors to circulate the Bible amongst the peoples of the earth.

2. That, as a means to that end, we will support to the best of our ability the American Bible Society.

3. That we earnestly recommend our brethren to take up the collection for the Bible cause in all of our churches.—W. GEORGE, Ch'n.

ST. IGNACE CHURCH.

Your Committee to which was referred the case of the Point St. Ignace, with instructions to secure by loan the means to complete the Church, and to report the results to this Conference, submit the following:

1. The Church has been completed, all except the seats; and, for present use, chairs have been substituted.

2. The entire cost of the structure is $2,400.

3. To finish the Church it was found necessary to loan $500, which was secured by the personal obligation of Bros. A. J. Richards and James S. Smart, for one year.

4. At the dedication, February 18th, the Committee was present and pledges were taken which were thought to be sufficient to pay all outstanding bills for the completion of the Church, and leave at least $300 to apply on the $500 loan. But by the failure of one of our principal men, the removal of others and the failure in attending to the collections very little has been secured to apply on said loan.

5. The mortgage of $650 which was placed on the Church before the work came into the hands of this Committee, it is thought the Society there can take care of; but $400 of the loan will have to be provided for in some way by this Conference. A. J. RICHARDS, Ch'n.

THE CENTENARY OF 1884.To the Ministers and Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church :

DEAR BRETHREN: The General Conference, at its session in Cincinnati in May, 1880, appointed a Committee on the Centennial of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also referred to the Committee on Education a memorial asking for the appointment of a "Centennial Educational Commission." After the reports from these committees had been presented, the General Conference ordered "that the matter be referred to the Bishops to devise a plan for the Centennial year, and report to the Church as early as convenient."

In accordance with this direction the Bishops have considered the matters contained in these reports, as well as the general subject, and they present to the Church the following suggestions:

1. As the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church occurred in the closing week of 1784, and as the General Conference will assemble in May, 1884, the Bishops consider it unnecessary to indicate at this time the order of religious services to celebrate the anniversary, as full directions can be given by the General Conference.

2. As preparatory measures, they recommend that the several Annual Conferences, at their sessions in 1883, appoint a minister to preach a sermon on the subject at their sessions in 1884, and arrange for such other services at the Conference sessions as they may deem best. They also recommend the Annual Conferences in 1883 to appoint a committee of ministers and laymen, who shall plan for such public meetings or conventions in the various parts of the Conference, and for such other services as may best promote the proposed objects.

3. As the German churches contemplate the holding of jubilee services to commemorate their organization in 1835, we have, at the request of their Conferences, so far modified the plan, that they may combine their services in 1884 and in 1885.

4. Though the religious services should be the chief feature of the celebration, yet as an expression of gratitude to God for his signal mercies and blessings during the century, many generous persons have already arranged for appropriate thank-offerings; and it is greatly desirable that the entire Church should unite in making such offerings. We recommend that an earnest effort be made to pay the indebtedness now existing on churches and parsonages before the commencement of 1884. Many churches have already moved in this matter, and we are glad to note that in several cities, and in a few districts, all the churches have become free from embarrassment. We should greatly rejoice if, before the century shall close, all existing debts, especially those of long standing, should be liquidated, that the churches might more properly unite in Connectional offerings.

5. The chief object of Connectional offerings should be the cause of Education. The future of the Church will, under God's blessing, largely depend on the culture given to the youth. We commend to the liberality of the Church, first, the Board of Education; second, the Freedman's Aid Society; third, Theological Schools; and fourth, such Seminaries, Colleges, and Universities as shall be selected by the several Annual Conferences.

6. In addition to educational institutions, we recommend to the Church the Chartered Fund and other associations which care for the support of the superannuated preachers; also the permanent funds of the various Church Boards, such as Missions, Church Extension, Sunday Schools and Tracts; also the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who are empowered to receive and administer, according to the will of the donors, any specific church funds; also benevolent Church institutions, such as Orphanages, Homes, and Hospitals which may be approved by the Annual Conferences. In all cases, however, their thank-offerings should be for permanent funds, and should not interfere with the contribution or disbursement of the annual collections.

7. It is not our right to dictate to any member of the Church either the object or the amount of his contribution. But we earnestly hope that in reviewing the history of the past, and in considering the great work which lies before us, each member of the Church will esteem it a privilege to contribute to such enterprises as shall bless humanity in all coming time.

8. We earnestly recommend that the year 1884 be one of special personal consecration; that we may humble ourselves before God, and fervently plead for that precious baptism of the Holy Spirit without which nothing good or great can be accomplished.

Praying that the blessing of God may rest upon the Church, and every member thereof, we are, dear brethren, yours in Christ Jesus.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Board of Bishops,

DETROIT CONFERENCE.

(As modified at adjournment, September 18, 1883.)

NOTE.—At great pains and labor, the Secretary has repeatedly re-written this Register to make it accurate and strictly alphabetical.

Will all members help to fill all blanks and correct all errors? If any names are misspelled, or errors are noticed, send me a note.

"Div." in the seventh column, indicates the fact that such members fell into the Detroit Conference by the division of 1856.

All who joined the Detroit Conference in full connection had at least two years of prior service as preachers on probation. Those who joined other Conferences may have done very many years of service before coming here.

The sixth column shows time of admission to full membership, not of reception on trial. Give your name in full.

JOHN McELDOWNEY, Secretary,
Detroit, Michigan.

WASHINGTON LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

QUESTIONS OF VITAL INTEREST TO INSURERS.

Do the policies of any other Company in a plain statement, or by implication, provide for the application of dividends to prevent policies from lapsing, if premiums are not paid when due ?

THEY DO NOT.

Do the laws of any State, or the policies of any company, provide for the application of dividends to prevent policies from lapsing, if premiums are not paid when due ?

THEY DO NOT.

Do the policies of any Company, or the laws of any State, COMPEL a Company to receive a premium over due upon a policy, without medical re-examination, so long as any dividend remains to its credit ?

THEY DO NOT.

Do the policies of any Company, or the laws of any State, compel a Company to pay the full amount of the policy after payment of one year's premium, should the second year's premium be overdue and unpaid at the time of death, although there may be dividends standing to the credit of the policy ?

THEY DO NOT.

No intelligent man will question this fact: The nonforfeitable dividend protection in the policies issued by THE WASHINGTON is not furnished in the policies of any other Company, nor by the laws of any State; therefore THE WASHINGTON gives the most insurance for the money, and its policies are the cheapest and the best.
